

HENDERSONVILLE ROAD CORRIDOR STUDY

A Complete Streets approach to redesigning this key corridor in
South Asheville, North Carolina

May 2021

Acknowledgments

The Hendersonville Road Corridor Study was made possible by the hard work and dedication of many citizens, businesspeople, officials, and others that gave generously of their time and talents, including the following:

French Broad River MPO

Jon Ridout

Tristan Winkler

Erica Anderson

Nick Kroncke

City of Asheville

Todd Okolichany

Vaidila Satvika

Dan Baechtold

David Hazzard

Stacy Mertern

Buncombe County

Nathan Pennington

Matt Cable

Josh O'Conner

William High

North Carolina Department of Transportation

Brendan Merithew

Daniel Sellers

Stantec Consulting Services, Inc.

Mike Rutkowski

Timothy Tresohlavy

Jaquasha Colon

Erica Ortman

Dan Hemme

Maggie Rogers

Dylan McKnight

Astrid Mayak

Tucker Jarvis

Amber Lewis

Alta Planning + Design

John Cock

Emily Condon

Rose & Associates

Kathleen Rose

Daniel Bellot

Nealon Planning

Meg Nealon

Thank you.

Contents

Acknowledgments	ii
Background & Context	1
Purpose & Process	2
Guiding Principles	4
Community Context	6
Existing Plans & Policies	8
Key Takeaways	12
Existing Conditions	15
Area Context	16
Roadway Analysis	20
Bicycle & Pedestrian Analysis	28
Key Takeaways	34
Market Analysis	37
Demographics & Economic Assessment	38
Market Analysis	42
Ripe & Firm Analysis	45
Public Engagement	49
Public Engagement	50
Stakeholder Discussions	51
Online Engagement	53
Public Meetings	56
Key Takeaways	58
Urban Places & Complete Streets	61
Smart Growth	62
Smarter Streets	70
Corridor Recommendations	75
Complete Streets Recommendations	76
Context Zones	77
Concept Designs	82
Phasing & Implementation	103
Implementation	104
Phasing Plan	105
Recommendations	108
Financing & Incentives	112

